Founded by Dr. Patricia Ruiz-Healy in 2006, Ruiz-Healy Art specializes in contemporary works of art with an emphasis on Latinx and Latin American artists, as well as working with prominent Texas-based artists. Throughout its fifteen-year history, Ruiz-Healy Art has produced numerous exhibition catalogues, and scholarly essays, contributing to the study of Latinx, Latin American, and Texas art history. The gallery has collaborated with writers, curators, and museums across the globe and has participated in prestigious national and international art fairs. In 2019 Ruiz-Healy Art opened a second location in New York City, allowing the gallery to exhibit its gallery artists in the art capital of the world. The success of Ruiz-Healy Art could not have been achieved without our amazing roster of artists, patrons, writers, curators, employees, and countless more. We are thrilled to be celebrating our Quinceañera in our home, and the city where it all began, San Antonio.
